Indexed B Srinivasa Rao.

In connection with the appoint-ment of Second Assistant Jailor of the Bangalore Central Jail, which has become vacant owing to the dismissal of one Dorasami Pillai, the Inspector General of Prisons sends two applica-tions, viz those of (1) M. Babu Rao (son of Mr. Annaji Rao) a Matriculate, now a clerk in the Judicial Department of the Dewan's Office on RS. 25., and (2) Eben Samuel, also a Matriculate, but employed outside the State in the C.S.M. College, Madras, on RS. 25 (+17RS. Missionary tutor allow-ance)-

As regards Babu Rao, the Superin-tendent of the Central Jail (Mr Choksi) reamrks that he knows him personally as he was serving in the Plague Depart-ment [as Assistant Ward Officer and latterly as Ward Officer]; that he is a smart young man and likely to give satisfaction.

Dr Choksi, however, thinks that, as the other man, Samuel, has had some ex-perience of Jail work, and has also served in various other Offices, he would be more fit for the appointment but for his present age, which is 31, or six years more than the limit of age pre-scribed in artical 43 of the Mysore Service Regulations.

In sending the papers to Govern-ment, the Inspector General requests sanction of Government for Samuel's en -listment as Second Assistant Jailor.

(N.B. Dr Smyth says he is a year over the prescribed age; but this is obviously an error.)

It is a question whether there are any special circumstances in this case, which require that the ordinary rule of age should be set aside in order to enable Samuel to be appointed, when there is already available " a smart young man," " likely "(according to Choksi Himself)to give satisfaction", and who has already put in 6 years service in the Mysore State. He is now only 29 years old.

If I may venture to do so, I would respectfully solicit the favourable consideration of Government to Babu Rao's superior claims. He has been working under my direct supervision and he is an energetic, intelligent, and deserving young man.

Subo. to Sec. for order 31.10.01.

The appointment is one within the gift of the Senior Surgeon; but for the age limit, the matter would not have come before Govt. As both the Jail Supdt. & the I.G. prefer Samuel & recommend his being taken, it appears an act of doubtful propriety + proper Babu Ram.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith a copy of letter no 509. dated 12th October 1901 with its enclosures (to be obligingly returned when no longer required) from the Superintendent Bangalore Central Jail and to state that of the two applicants mentioned therein, Samuel seems the more suitable man, but he is a year over the age laid down under article 43 of the Mysore Service Regulations, vol 3, I therefore request that you will be so good as to obtain sanction of Government for his enlistment as Second Assistant Jailor of the Bangalore Central Jail.

Sir

With reference to your Docket No 1417 dated 1st Instant, I have the honor to submit herewith two of the applications received by me for the vacant post. One of the applicants by name Baboo Rau, a matriculate now employed as a clerk in the Dewan's Office is known to me personally as he was serving in the Plague Department. He is a smart young man and likely to give satisfaction. The other applicant by name Samuel whose Application was referred to me from your Office, I have also seen personally as he came here from Madras at my request. He has some experience of jail work having acted as an Assistant Jailor in the Palamcotta Jail. His experience coupled with that in the various other Offices that he has served in makes him, in my opinion more fit for the appointment than Baboo Ram, but for his present age which is 31 under article 43 of the Madras Service Regulations it is laid down that no man should be ordinarily admitted into the service after the age of 25.

I leave it to the Inspector General to Select either of the two
